

International Youth Math Challenge of 2020

Global

The IYMC is the biggest online math competition open for students from all around the world: Take this unique opportunity and show us your creativity and math skills: Participate in the global qualification round today!

www.iymc.info

Prizes

All participants receive certificates and the winners receive cash prizes worth over

700 USD

There are special awards for the best submissions from different regions of the world.

Deadline

The qualification round consists of five math problems: You have to solve at least three until

11. October 2020

to qualify for the pre-final round. The overall global winners are selected in the final round.

Participate Now!